Insider members can enjoy any one or all five monthly Insider magazines that now cover the whole of the North West, Yorkshire, Midlands, Wales and South West.

Insider magazine is the essential must read business publication filled with information and advice that you cannot afford not to know. Simple – Insider readers beat their competition because they're better informed.

Insider prides itself on its valuable data and excellent editorial coverage. Some of our most important and best read features include:

- The 'Top 500'*
The Top companies in your region
- The 'Rich List'
The wealth of your region
- The 'Growth 100'
The fastest growing businesses in your region
- The 'Power 100'
The most powerful people in your region

Insider articles include regional reviews, deals, property features and essential advice on business activities.

As a member you will also be entitled to receive complimentary copies of our Insider regional business guides.

- Insider Dealmakers Guide (RRP £40.00)
- Insider Commercial Property Guide (RRP £40.00)[†]

Remember, although you may already be lucky enough to receive a complimentary copy of Insider it is a paid for publication and the only way to guarantee a regular copy being delivered to you is to become an Insider member.

“As chief executive of an international business, I often find Insider more informative and relevant than my other regular periodicals such as The Economist and Investors Chronicle”

NICK JONES, MANAGING DIRECTOR, REDFERN INTERNATIONAL

Insider hosts the largest business networking events and black tie award dinners in each of the major regions of the UK.

Insider events in your region provide you with an opportunity to build relationships with key clients, gain business from leading regional companies and take part in discussions. These events are essential "must attend events" in the business calendar.

Members benefit from reduced ticket price costs to Insider events and priority is given to members when guest lists are prepared for invitation only Insider events.

"Great event this morning... Really stimulated my imagination... I was staggered by the turn-out, which suggests you really caught the wave - A testament to the quality of Insider events"
